

Respondent Sheet

The Chiang Research Festival is both a celebration of student research and a forum in which students can test and refine their ideas before submitting their final research portfolios. To help in this effort, please complete the section corresponding to your official role.

PRESENTER

Please record one or two questions/concerns you have about your work-to-date, then give this form to the Respondent before starting your presentation.

- 2.

RESPONDENT

Please complete the following information and, after discussing your observations, return this sheet to the Presenter.

Which aspects of the argument are clearest to you?

Which part(s) of the argument would you like to understand better—or challenge?

What did you learn from the presentation?

How would you answer/respond to the questions/concerns the Presenter wrote at the top of this page?
